Scripture reading: Psalm 145

Some kids go to church only because their parents require them to. I am not one of those children. Even if no one made me come to church, I would still come anyway. Church, God, and Jesus all are a big part of my life. When I come to church, I get to praise God. I show my love of God by singing in the children's choir, coming to Sunday School to learn about God and Jesus, worshipping at the contemporary service, and helping my mom teach others about God. When I'm not at church, I serve God by showing kindness to kids at school, not using God's name in vain, and inviting others to our church.

If I talked to someone who didn't have God in his/her life, I would let that person know how important God is. He is amazing because He can create miracles. You never know what's going to happen, but whenever a miracle does happen, God planned that to happen for a reason. God loves and cares for everyone more than we can understand. Because of His everlasting love, God sent Jesus to die on the cross to rescue us from our sins. Forever and ever, God will NEVER leave us.

Prayer: Dear God, thank you for all that you give us, and all that you do for us. Help us think of you in all that we do. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen
